

PAID INTERNSHIP

Are you passionate about environmental issues?

Do you like working with children? Be our next:

Water and Energy Education Intern

$14.21/hr Undergraduate - $17.04/hr Graduate level

Approximately 20 hours per week - flexible

Job Description:

As a Water and Energy Education Intern you will:

- Teach in classrooms (lessons are already created) and lead field trips for K-12 students on the following topics:
 - ⇒ Climate Change
 - ⇒ Water and Energy Conservation
 - ⇒ Storm Drain Pollution
 - ⇒ Water Quality for Endangered Salmon
 - ⇒ Watershed Health
- Assist with teacher workshops and adopt-a-creek programs
- Assist with administrative tasks to support education programs

Qualifications:

- Current enrollment in an accredited college or university
- Public speaking or experience working with children
- Interest in education and the environment
- Bilingual Spanish skills are desirable

Sonoma
Water

Email your resume to: wahuman.resources@scwa.ca.gov